

Samuel Polkirkhorn and Samuel J. Nicholson

This day came the plaintiff, by his attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion, were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendant for the sum of one hundred and forty two dollars and fourteen cents, the penalty of said bonds, and the cost by him in this behalf expended. And the defendants in mercy &c. But this execution is to be discharged by the payment of seventy one dollars and seven cents, with legal interest thereon from the 17th day of October 1836 till paid, and the cost.

William D. Taylor & Co. v. Boston Bernard, Merchants & Partners trading under the firm and style of William D. Taylor & Co.

against Benjamin Lewis and Williamson Esqrs

This day came the plaintiff, by their attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion, they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for the sum of one hundred and nine dollars and sixty eight cents, the penalty of said bonds, and the cost by them in this behalf expended. And the defendants in mercy &c. But this execution is to be discharged by the payment of fifty-four dollars and eighty four cents, with legal interest thereon from the 1st day of October 1836 till paid, and the cost.

Richard Darden

against

John N. Williams and Jesse Meadand

This day came the plaintiff, by his attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion, they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for the sum of seventy three dollars and twenty two cents, the penalty of the said bonds, and the cost by him in this behalf expended. And the defendants in mercy &c. But this execution is to be discharged by the payment of thirty six dollars and sixty one cents, with legal interest thereon from the 32nd day of September 1836 till paid, and the cost.

The last Will and Testament of Rebecca Corbit was produced in Court; and William Joyner, one of the Witnesses Thereto, being dead, Benjamin Griffin & John Moore were sworn and severally depose, that they were well acquainted with the hand writing of said William Joyner, and verily believe the signature, as a Witness to said Will, purporting to be his, is in the proper handwriting of said William Joyner. And the said Will is continued for full proof.

Benjamin Griffin, who has been appointed Sheriff of this County, for the ensuing year, by a Commission from the acting Governor, with the seal of the Commonwealth annexed, this day appeared in Court and together with Robert Hicks, Samuel H. Holmes, Patrick Liles, Jesse Parker, Samuel R. Hines and David S. Branch, his securities, entered into three several bonds in the penalty of Thirty Thousand dollars each, conditioned as the Law directs; which Bonds were acknowledged by said obligors and ordered to be recorded.

Present George A. C. Barham Gent.