E. H. Warren. - Note as to Mr. Cobb. J. Moore. Thereupon, by consent of parties it is decreed and ordered that the division aforesaid in manner and form as aforesaid made be held firm and stable and binding between the parties.

It being represented to the Court that Oswald Scott and Gosselina Scott, who have been bound to Abram L. Gardner have been cruelly and inhumanly treated by their said Master, it is therefore ordered that the said Gardner be summoned to the next Court to show cause why the indentures binding the said apprentices should not be cancelled. And that he do not presume to misuse them on this account, but that he bring them to the next Court to hear the trial & make good their complaint

George Williams is assigned guardian to his infant children Richard, Margaret & Hannah Jane Williams and thereupon he, together with Augustin Pope and Gray J. Jenkins, his securities, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of one thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs

A Deed of bargain & sale from John Evans to William D. Hood was acknowledged by said Evans and ordered to be recorded.
