In Chancery.
Deft

This day came the parties by their counsel and the commissioners appointed to act under an interlocutory decree pronounced in this cause at November Court 1835, made their Report which is ordered to be recorded & is as follows, "In execution of the within decree the undersigned commissioners made sale of the tract of Land therein mentioned at public auction, when the same was purchased by Anthony A. Howell at the price of two hundred dollars

$200.00

Cash retained and herewith paid over to the court

$17.00

Commissioners on the amount of sales

1000 27.00

To This the commissioners have at the request of some of the parties, though no part of their duty superadded a rent account as rendered by Anthony A. Howell and herewith returned amounting in (cluding) interest to $173.00

The commissioners do not intend to pass any opinion upon the correctness of the rent account - but for the years accounted for, they find it amounts to nearly ten per cent. per annum on the amt of the sale. To this amount of $266.26 notes have been taken, except of A. Howell proportion, in the proportion directed by the decree, and herewith returned to court all of will which is respectfully submitted. James D. Mason - Burg. Jordan Edwards. * "An error was committed in drawing down the aggregate amt of sale and rent of two dollars which was discovered until after the bonds were taken it was therefore added to the cash" thereupon by consent of parties it is decreed and ordered, that the sale and division aforesaid in manner and form as aforesaid made be held firm and stable and forever binding between the parties. And it is ordered that the cash pay to the parties respectively entitled, returned by the Commissioners and their proportion of any sum which may remain after paying the cost out of the sum of seventeen dollars paid into

91.26

266.26
