Hawkins Bond guardian to Archibald D. Bond against James B. Mellows and wife Harriet

In Chancery
Plffs. vs. Dfs.

The Commissioner appointed to carry into effect the interdictory decree pronounced in this cause at January Court 1834, this day made a report which is approved of and confirmed by the Court and is in these words to wit: Agreeably to a decree of the County Court of Southampton made January Term 1834 in the Suit of Hawkins Bond guardian to Archibald D. Bond against James B. Mellows and wife Harriet, I did, on the 19th day of January 1835, having given due notice thereof, sell at public auction for cash, a negro woman Jenny and her child Susan, being heiress of the negroes allotted to the said Harriet Mellows as dower in the Slaves of the estate of Calthrop Bond dec'd and they were purchased by John A. Hill for the sum of $265.00 after deducting my Commissions say $38.25 leaves the sum of $226.75
