

examined, and the said Thomas Johnson fully heard. It is the opinion of the Court and accordingly ordered that the said Thomas Johnson give security for his keeping the peace for the term of one year from this day - the said Thomas Johnson to be bound in the sum of one hundred dollars with one security in the like sum of one hundred dollars. And thereupon the said Thomas Johnson together with George Johnson, his security, (who justified to his sufficiency) here in Court, severally acknowledged themselves indebted to his Excellency David Campbell Esq. Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia and his successors in office for the time being in the sum of one hundred dollars each of their respective goods & chattels Lands & Tenements to be levied and to the said Governor and his successors in office for the use of the Commonwealth rendered. But upon this condition that if the said Thomas Johnson shall keep the peace and be of good behaviour towards all the citizens of the Commonwealth more especially towards the said Thomas Johnson for the term of one year from this day then this recognizance to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue. And it is ordered that the said Thomas Johnson pay the cost of this prosecution.
