The Court

This day came the parties by their attorneys and the plaintiffs joined issue upon the defendants plea of Not Tied Record, and thereupon the record of the judgment in the plaintiffs declaration mentioned, being seen and inspected, it seems to the Court here that there is such record of recovery as the plaintiff in his declaration aforesaid hath alleged. To which opinion of the Court the defendant by his attorney excepted, and tendered his bill of exceptions, which was received, signed and sealed by the Court and ordered to be made a part of the record in the cause - and thereupon came a jury to wit John M. Hurley, Fielding S. Mahone, John A. Turner, Edward F. Riddick, Henry D. Waterbury, James A. McClellan, George Blunt, William Griffin, William Atkinson, Benjamin C. Waller, Nathaniel Jones and John R. Williams who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issue joined upon the defendants plea of payment, upon their oath returned a verdict in the words and figures following "We of the jury find for the plaintiff the sum of sixty dollars with interest from the 15th day of January 1827, the debt in the declaration mentioned, and sixty cents the costs of the former judgment and the costs of this suit." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant the said sum of sixty dollars with legal interest thereon from the 15th day of January 1827 till paid, and the further sum of sixty cents, and his costs by him in this behalf expended And the said defendant in Mercy &c.
