This day came the parties by their attorneys and the defendant by leave of the Court filed a special plea in writing, to which plea the plaintiff demurred and the defendant joined in the demurrer. And thereupon the matters of law arising upon the said demurrer being argued it seems to the Court that the said plea and the matters therein contained are sufficient in law to bar the plaintiff from having and maintaining his action against the Defendant. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff take nothing by his declaration but for his false claim be in mercy &c. and that the defendant go thereof without day and recover against the plaintiff his costs by him about his defence in this behalf expended.
