In the petition of Patrick Dole for leave to alter the road from the Swamp road near his house to the Tucker Swamp Meeting House. The Commissioners to whom said application was referred, made his report, which is ordered to be recorded and is as follows: "Agreeably to an order of Court bearing date the 11th day of October last (passed) one of the Commissioners of Roads, proceeded to examine a route for a Road upon the application of Patrick Dole, to be from the Swamp road near his house to the Tucker Swamp Meeting House, and am of opinion that such a Road would be attended with convenience to but few individuals, to wit, Mrs. Silas Sumner, P. Dole & Joseph & Leonard: There are two other public ways leading to the same point (Tucker Swamp Meeting House) neither of which exceeds, agreeable to the information I could gain, six or at most seven miles, and both good ways, the road selected would be 2 1/2 miles in length, and generally a low wet, porous, which would require ditching at least 1/2 of a mile, and calsewaying in two or three places making a distance of something like three hundred yards, exclusive of two pole bridges about twenty yards in length (the two) which together with the clearing and shrubbing, would, it is supposed cost from $200 to $250. The persons through whose land the road would run, so far as I could learn are disposed to give it clear of any charge. Respectfully Submitted Wm. D. Hood Comr. July 19, 1835." And it is ordered that the Sheriff summon the acting Justices of the peace for this County to the first day of the next term to consider the propriety of giving the said Dole leave to alter the said road as proposed.
