On the motion of the attorney for the Commonwealth and for reasons appearing to the Court it is ordered that this case be continued till the next quarterly Term and that Henry T. Bays the prosecutor pay the costs thereof. And Matthew Wick and William Joyner who were summoned to appear here this day as witnesses for the Commonwealth were solemnly called but came not. Therefore on the motion of the Attorney for the Commonwealth it is ordered that the said Matthew Wick and William Joyner be summoned to appear here on the first day of the next quarterly Term, to show cause, if any they can, why they should not be fined for their said contempt.

This day came as well the Attorney for the Commonwealth as the Defendants by their Attorney and thereupon came a jury to wit Benjamin Waller, Edward F. Riddick, Jesse Drury, Fielding S. Mathews, Joseph M. Faircloth, Harrison S. Pope, William D.
Clarke, John R. Williams, James Turner, Mills Pope, John Thorpe, and Samuel M. Bond who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issue joined, upon their oath returned a verdict in the following words to wit "We the jury find the defendant Gray guilty and assess his fine to one Cent, and find the defendant Sebell not guilty." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the Commonwealth recover against the Defendant Gray the said sum of one Cent the fine by the jurors in their verdict assessed, and the costs of this prosecution. And the said defendant may be taken H. And as to the Defendant Sebell it is considered by the Court that he go thereof without day.
