This day came the parties by their attorneys and thereupon came a jury to wit: Mills A. Smith, Matthew Nick, Williams, J. Jones, Anthony M. Howell, John L. Turner, Griffin Williams, Henry R. Waterbury, James L. Lacey, Jacob B. Smith, Mills Summer, Randolph R. Gardner and Bennett Stephenson who being duly sworn and sworn the truth to speak upon the issue joined upon their oath returned a verdict in these words "We the Jury find for the defendant." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff takes nothing by his bill but for his false clamour he is in mercy &c. And that the defendant go thereof without day and recover against the said plaintiff the cost by him about his defence in this behalf expended.
