as to taking care and raising the infant complainants until the come of age, and being still willing and hereby consenting, therefore, It is by the Court further adjudged, ordered, and decreed, that the said complainants or such of them as may, act after giving twenty days notice of the time and place of sale, proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidder, upon a credit of twelve months, the tract or parcels of land in the bill mentioned whereof the testator died seized (including the reversionary portion of her life estate). The purchaser however is not to have possession of the said land until the ten the above direction as to a sale upon a credit receive from the purchaser or purchasers a sum in cash sufficient to pay the expenses of sale and costs, and apply the same accordingly. That after deducting the said expenses and costs, divide the net amount of sales into four equal parts or shares, and for each of the said parts take bond with ample security, one payable to the legal and proper guardian of each of the infant complainants and one to each of the defendants which bonds the Commissioners will deliver over to the parties respectively entitled to the same under this decree and make record of their proceedings to this Court in order to a final decree.

Appellant
Appellee
Upon an Appeal from a Judgment of a Justice of the Peace, rendered against the appellant for $12.50 and four dollars cost, on the 9th day of July 1836.

This day came the parties by their attorneys and the original judgment and papers in the cause being seen and inspected and sundry witnesses being sworn and examined; it seems to the Court here that there is no error in the judgment aforesaid; Therefore it is considered by the Court that the same be affirmed, and that the appellee recover against the appellant and Jethro Cobb his security upon the appeal the sum of twelve dollars & fifty cents & four dollars cost the amount of the original judgment together with damages according to law from the 9th day of July 1836 till paid and the costs by him about his defence in this behalf expended.
