

James Mason having obtained an attachment against the estate of Deborah Joy an absconding debtor for twenty eight dollars due by account and the Constable having made return that he had levied the said attachment on "the crop and three head of cattle". This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and the defendant not appearing to satisfy the said attached effects. It is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant the sum of twenty eight dollars his debt aforesaid proved to be just and his costs by him in this behalf expended. and it is ordered that the Constable make sale of the aforesaid attached effects and out of the monies arising from such sale satisfy this judgment to the plaintiff, and the balance if any, return to the Defendant, and return an account of such sale to the Court.

An examination of Sally Worlton of this County, single woman, taken before Jacob James a Justice of the Peace of this County, in writing, upon oath, upon which examination the said Sally Worlton charged Arthur Maget with being the father of her bastard child, was this day returned, and also a recognizance entered into by the said Arthur Maget to appear here and to abide and perform such order as the Court should make concerning the same, was also returned. Whereupon it is ordered that the said recognizance stand continued till the next Court.

On the motion of Jambor W. Scott who made oath and together John Moore Jr. and Edwards Watts his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of One thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs. Certificate is granted him for obtaining letters of administration on the estate of James Johnson deceased in due form.

Ordered that James D. Massenburg, John Morris Jr. and Jesse Arwain being first duly sworn before a Justice of the Peace for that purpose do appraisers all the personal estate of James Johnson deceased and return the appraisement under their hands to Court.

James H. Bond, Benjamin M. Hancock, Samuel M. Bond, Joseph et al. vs.
Robert Greary, and John A. Hill who severally stand bound by recognizance for their appearances here to answer the Complaint of Joseph Senior against them this day appeared in discharge of their recognizance and the said Joseph Senior being solemnly called and not appearing. It is ordered that the said Complaint be dismissed and that the said Joseph Senior pay the costs thereof.

John H. Barnes

against:

James Edwards, Henry Wille and Thomas B. Beale the forthcoming of property at the day of sale

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and at appearing to the Court that the Defendants have had legal notice of their motion they were solemnly called but came not.
Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for a hundred dollars and forty cents the penalty of the Court bond and his costs by him in this behalf expended. And the said defendants unless they pay this execution may be discharged by the payment of forty four dollars and twenty cents with legal interest thereon from the 17 day of September 1888 till paid and the costs

$5.66

To be paid