The Commissioners appointed to let to the lowest undertaker the repairs or rebuilding of the bridge over the three creeks near Selzer & Wickmans this day made their report which is ordered to be recorded and is in these words to wit: "We the Commissioners appointed by Southampton County Court after examining the three creek bridge called Long bridge and finding such repairs required as we thought necessary let the said bridge to the lowest undertaker, which Nestor Brew became the undertaker at one hundred and eighty four dollars and two dollars & hundred for the timber for all extra work, and has completed the said job according to contract which we Commissioners do report to Court according to said order made by the Court of Southampton - June 8/1809 assigned by Joseph H. ^{the} Parham, Thomas Ridley &c -

This day John M. Bailey produced an account of his services as a Commissioner of the Revenue, and the Court have considered that twenty five days were requisite for the said Commissioner to perform the services aforesaid.

James M. Cloud who stands bound by recognizance for his appearance here this day to answer the complaint of Wiley Joyner against him for a breach of the peace appeared in discharge of the said recognizance. And therefore the said Wiley Joyner and family retainers were sworn and examined and the said Cloud fully heard. The Court after hearing the evidence is of opinion and so accordingly order that the said James M. Cloud give security for his keeping the peace for the term of twelve months from this day, the said Cloud to be bound in the sum of One hundred dollars with two securities in the sum of fifty dollars each. Whereupon the said James M. Cloud together with Dwight Wattle and Thomas R. Deale his securities here in Court acknowledged themselves indebted to David Dransfield Esq. Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, the said Cloud in the sum of One hundred dollars and the said Wattle and Deale in the sum of fifty dollars each to be made and levied of their respective lands and tenements goods and Chattels and to the said Governor and his successors for the use of the Commonwealth rendered. Yet upon this condition that if the said James M. Cloud shall keep the peace and be of good behavior towards all the citizens of this Commonwealth more especially towards Wiley Joyner aforesaid for the term of twelve months from this day then this recognizance to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue.

An Account of Rebecca Stephens guardianship of Mary, Mathias and Richard Stephens was returned and ordered to be recorded.
