

5 per cent Commission

Lawyer's fee

blacks fee

$6.22

10.00

2.22

$18.54

77 105 96

$ 15 15

For one seventh of which amount day your Commissioner took no bond made payable to the defendant Mary S. Battle. The balance day $90.88 your Commissioner divided into four equal parts, giving $22.72 cts. for which amount one bond was taken made payable to Abram Reddick the next friend of James W. Battle, there being no guardian; one debt made payable to Abram Reddick the next friend of Nicholas J. Battle; one debt made payable to Abram Reddick the next friend of Ann Celoz Battle and one debt made payable to Abram Reddick the next friend of John Battle. Your Commissioner, having performed the duty assigned him, submit this as his report. Given my hand & the 16th day of August 1859. Edw. D. Smith the Clerk. On consideration whereof and by consent it is deemed and ordered that the sale and division aforesaid in manner and form as aforesaid made be held firm and stable and binding forever between the parties.

The Overseers of the Poor

against

Arthur C. Marget

The Commonwealth

against

John S. Drake

These causes are severally continued till the next Court

Affg

Affg

Upon a Recog.

Affg

Affg

Upon a Recog.

The Commonwealth

against

William Hensel and Solomon Johnson

Upon a Recog.

Affg

blacks fee $22

Affg 2.22

blacks fee 1.66

Law fee 2.52

$14.99

Capt for fine $5.00

This day came as well the attorney for the Commonwealth as the defendants by their attorneys and thereupon came a jury to wit, William White, Horace Denney, William Mallory, Benjamin Sumner, John Parker, James Wall, John Perkins, Thomas B. Wade, Joseph M. Fairbanks, Joseph A. Peck, Solomon S. Barham and John Howe Jr. who being sworn took and sworn the oath to speak upon the issue joined upon their oath returned a verdict in the following words to wit: "We the jury find the defendant Hensel guilty and assess the fine to one cent, and we find the defendant Johnson not guilty." Wherefore it is considered by the Court that the Commonwealth recover against the defendant Hensel the said sum of one cent the fine by the jury assessed and the costs of this prosecution. And the said Defendant may be taken &c. And as to the defendant Johnson it is considered by the Court that he go thereof without day.

Benjamin W. Davis, George J. Smith, William J. Henry, William J. Henry

against

Arthur Applewhite, Sterling Davis, George J. Henry

On the motion of the plaintiffs by their Counsel William B. Edwards is appointed guardian ad litem to the infant defendants to defend them in the said

Affg

Affg

In Chancery