

Court next. It appearing to the Court that the said Washburn is a man of good character and not addicted to drunkenness or gaming.

James D. Asplett

against

William McMills and Jesse Parker

Plff.

Defrs. } A return upon a bond taken for § 5. 16

To. for. ap.

The forthcoming of property at the day of sale.

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and it appearing to the Court that the Defendants have had legal notice of this motion they were solemnly called but come not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the Defendants for ninety seven dollars and forty four cents the penalty of the said bond and his costs by him about his Outions in this behalf expended. And the said Defendants on Motion that this execution may be discharged by the payment of forty eight dollars seventy two cents with legal interest thereon from the 4th day of April 1840 till paid and the costs.

John M. Burley and Samuel Kells Commissioners of the Revenue severally returned a list of their Seizable property and made oath thereon according to Law. They also complied with the Law prescribing their duties concerning Merchants Licenses &c.

This day John M. Burley and Samuel Kells severally produced an account of their services as Commissioners of the Revenue and the Court have considered that seventy five days were owing to for the said Commissioners each to perform the services aforesaid.

The Commissioners heretofore appointed to let the repairs of the bridge at Middle point this day made a report which is ordered to be recorded and as in these words to wit: "Agreeable to the unrevoked order we the Commissioners proceeded to let the repairs of the long bridge at middle point after giving timely notice thereof and Patrick Dolis one of the Commissioners became the undertaker for the sum of fifty eight dollars & 50 cents he had the work agreeable to contract and we have received the same. Given under our hands the 11th day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty. John P. Swallow Joshua Diefen."

The Commissioners heretofore appointed to let the repairs of the bridge across the River at this day made a report which is ordered to be recorded, and as in these words to wit: "Agreeable to the above order we let the building of the bridge across the River at Sweet's which was undertaken by James D. Peters for thirty seven dollars and fifty cents and this is in full and exact. Respectfully Submitted: Sol. D. Parker John W. Teller June 16th 1840."

The Commissioners heretofore appointed to let the repairs of the bridge across the River at this day made a report which is ordered to be recorded and as in these words to wit: "Agreeable to the unrevoked order James W. Murfree and Stephen A. Hardaway, Jr. undertook the repairs of the bridge across the River at Sweet's, at public notice, after giving sufficient notice, and Mr. Patrick Dolis became the undertaker for sixty three dollars and fifty cents."