for the coming of property at the day of sale.

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and it appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this return they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for fifteen dollars and thirty cents the penalty of the said bond and his costs by him about his return in this behalf expended. And the said defendants in Mercy &c. But this execution may be discharged by the payment of eleven dollars and sixty five cents with legal interest thereon from the 12th day of May 1840 till paid and the costs.
