against
John Rogers

Plff. } In Chancery
Def.

This cause came on this day to be heard on the bill, answer and exhibit, was decided by court and argued by counsel: On consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that Jesse Drury be appointed a Trustee to a deed of Trust, made and entered into between John Rogers, James Scott and Joseph Pruller, it appearing to the Court, that the former Trustee Joseph Pruller has since the execution of the said deed departed this life. And the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree, that the new Trustee Jesse Drury shall have and receive all the profits and proceeds conferred upon the former Trustee Joseph Pruller by the aforesaid deed of Trust bearing date the 19th day of April 1800 to which the said Rogers, Scott and Pruller were parties, and that the said Jesse Drury shall in all respects be substituted for the former Trustee Joseph Pruller, and it is further ordered and decreed that the costs of this suit be proportionally borne by the parties.
