

In the last Will and Testament of Hartwell Scott deceased was present by the oath of Joshua Hart, James H. Brown and George A. Brown the subscribing subscribers thereto and ordered to be recorded and at the motion of Benjamin L. Drew the record thereof named above made on the 2d day of January 1852 and together with David H. Miller and George H. Howell his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond on the penalty of six thousand dollars conditioned according to law certificate is granted here for drawing a probate of the said Will in due form.

Ordered that Charles Hart, Joshua Hart, Theodore M. Bradley and Thomas Abbott or any three of them being first sworn before a Justice of the Peace do truly and justly appraise all the personal and real estate of Benjamin Scott deceased in this County which may be to their credit or charge and return the appraisement under their hands to County.

The Court doth agree Benjamin L. Drew guardian to George P. Hart nephew of Hartwell Scott deceased and thereupon the said Benjamin L. Drew with Remond G. Howell and George Holloman his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of six thousand dollars conditioned according to law.

^{Contra} William Howell laborer, who stands charged with breaking and entering within the County of Southampton the property of James Cobb and of the value of one dollar this day appeared in Court in discharge of his recognizance (the Court pronounced for his remission having failed to meet) and thereupon the said William Howell was set to the bar in custody of the Sheriff of this County and standing before the court and examined and the prisoner by his Counsel fully heard. The Court after hearing the testimony and from all the circumstances of the case being of opinion the offence of which the said William Howell is charged is cognizable before the Court of this County doth remand the said William Howell to the jail of this County to take his trial accordingly at the next Quarterly Term of this County. And on the motion of the prisoner and the Court being of opinion that the case is a suitable one Ordered that that the prisoner be allowed to give bail himself to be bound in the sum of Two hundred dollars with no securities in the sum of One hundred dollars each.

Be it remembered, that James Cobb, Thomas Martin, Harrison Moore, and James W. Murphy here in Court severally acknowledge themselves indebted to John Rutherford Lieutenant Governor, acting as Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia and his successors in office in the sum of One hundred dollars each of their respective goods and chattels lands and tenements to be levied and to the said Governor and his successors for the use of the Commonwealth rendered. Yet upon the condition that of the said James Cobb, Thomas Martin, Harrison Moore and James W. Murphy shall severally make their formal appearance before the Justices of the Peace for this County at the Courthouse on the first day of the next quarterly Term of this County and there and there give such evidence as they and each of them know or believe of the Commonwealth against William Howell who stands charged with breaking and shall not depart without leave of the said Court when the recognizance to be recd.
