

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the Defendants for the sum of seventy seven dollars and fifty four cents the penalty of the said bond and two cents by him on this behalf expended. And the said defendants on Mercy &c. But this execution may be discharged by the payment of thirty eight dollars and seventy seven cents with legal interest thereon from the 10th day of August 1851 till paid and the costs.

Elizabeth Briggs and James D. Drury merchants and partners in trade under the name firm and style of Briggs & Drury who sue for the benefit of John M. Gurley, Plaintiff against

William Davis and Jesse Drury

} 28 millions upon the bond taken for the forthcoming of property on the day of sale.

This day came the plaintiff by their attorney and appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for the sum of one hundred and one dollars and twenty cents the penalty of the said bond and two cents by them on this behalf expended. And the said Defendants on Mercy &c. But this execution may be discharged by the payment of fifty dollars and eight five cents with legal interest thereon from the 22nd day of July 1851 till paid and the costs.

John M. Gurley assignee of Edwin Goodner deceased vs. Benjamin Griffin Plaintiff

Plff

against

James Clayton and James Clayton

} 1 million upon the bond taken for the forthcoming of property on the day of sale.

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the Defendants for three hundred and fourteen dollars and twenty four cents the penalty of the said bond and two cents by him on this behalf expended. And the said Defendants on Mercy &c. But this execution may be discharged by the payment of one hundred and fifty seven dollars and forty seven cents with legal interest thereon from the 15th day of August 1851 till paid and the costs.

William Henry, Sally Ann, Annister W. Temperance Jane, Mary Ann and Mary Eliza Edwards infants children of Taylor Edwards by Elizabeth R. Edwards their next friend

Plff

against

James H. Hooper

} In Chancery
the

This day this cause came on to be heard on the bill and answer, was debated by counsel and argued by counsel, whereupon the Court with adjudge order and decree that the slave manumitted by the said Taylor Edwards be sold by the master James H. Hooper to the highest bidder for cash after giving two days public notice, and that the said master pay over the proceeds of sale as well as the remaining bond interest.