

§ 5. 16

Ex. fa. q.

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and it appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for seventy two dollars and sixty cents the penalty of the said bond and his costs by him in this behalf expended. And the said defendants in Money q^{d} But this execution may be discharged by the payment of seventy two dollars and sixty cents with legal interest thereon from the 14th day of August 1841 till paid and the costs.

John B. Nicholas

against

John B. Wells and Deborah B. Rollings

Plff.

Defers. A motion upon the bond taken for the forthcoming of property at the day of sale.

§ 5. 16

Ex. fa. q.

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and it appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for the sum of One hundred and ten dollars twenty four cents the penalty of the said bond and his costs by him in this behalf expended. And the said Defendants in Money q^{d} But this execution may be discharged by the payment of fifty five dollars and twelve cents with legal interest thereon from 15th day of August 1841 till paid and the costs.

Such Warrant was due for the benefit of James Drake

against

Arthur C. Magot, Lewis Morrell and Benjamin Record

Plff.

Defers. A motion upon the bond taken for the forthcoming of property at the day of sale.

§ 5. 16

Ex. fa. q.

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and it appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for the sum of Eight, two dollars and sixty eight cents the penalty of the said bond and his costs by him in this behalf expended. And the said Defendants in Money q^{d} But this execution may be discharged by the payment of forty three dollars and thirty four cents with legal interest thereon from the 12th day of August 1841 till paid and the costs.

On the motion of James Munroe for leave to alter the road running from South Quay to Jerusalem on said Munroe's land. The viewers heretofore appointed to view the way this day made report which is in the following words to wit. We the Commissioners appointed according to the adjudged order to view and report the propriety public and private convenience & inconvenience of changing the Road leading from South Quay to Jerusalem on James Munroe's land do hereby report and state that we believe it is of no private inconvenience and of much public benefit to change it so as to connect with the road leading from Brimbleton to Jerusalem running as a lane now does on the land of the said James Munroe. We believe it is of much public convenience because by the change it shortens the distance from South Quay to Brimbleton by the public highway 1600 yards where it