and next friend against

Fleming J. Smith administrator of Maria Parker de^d and Godwin Parker by Nelly Parker for her guardian and next friend The admissions apparently by the intermediate decree in this cause, this day, made the following what the children to an interlocutory decree Smith vs Parker for provisions of the day of July 1842 by the County Court of Hampton. Your Commissioners were present to report so far as we are enabled, which is only in part, as follows.

First, as to the distribution share of Harrison Parker (an infant born after the death of his father, and not provided for under his will) in the personal estate, we of course, can say nothing, as the settlement of the estate has not been exhibited to our view.
Secondly - we are directed in making our report to take an account of the value of the real estate of which Harrison Parker died seized on his own right &c" and the real estate we can only report as follows. Harrison Parker died leaving one child named Godwin Parker, and an infant born after his death, named Harrison. In the lifetime of Harrison Parker, and when he had two children living by a former wife to wit Godwin & Susan their children were entitled to a tract of land called the Carr place derived by descent from their mother, who died in the lifetime of the father - then Susan died under the age of twenty one years unmarried and without issue leaving the father and aforesaid brother - the land then descended to Godwin Parker, the brother, at the death of the father. There is another tract of land called the "new tract" in which is contained the dower right of Elizabeth S. Gardner widow of the late Henry Gardner de^d, which dower right was purchased by Harrison Parker de^d in his lifetime - therefore the rents of the dower must be equally divided between Godwin Parker and the said Harrison Parker (the infant) during the lifetime of the said Elizabeth S. Gardner. There is also one other tract called the "old house tract" which is the fee simple lands of Harrison Parker de^d the rents thereof must be equally divided between the two children Godwin and Harrison.
Thirdly - we are also further directed, in making up the account to allow to Godwin Parker the negro boy by the name of Henry specially devised to him by his father" as to the said negro boy he has never been exhibited to our view, and we are told that he has been otherwise disposed of by an order, or decree of the Court, therefore we cannot allow him as directed. "Respectfully Submitted, Given under our hands this 11th day of May 1842. Wm Jones, J. Parker"
