

Ex. p.

for the coming of property at the day of sale
 This day came the plaintiff by his Attorney and it appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion, they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for the sum of ninety seven dollars and twenty six cents, the penalty of the bond, and his costs by him in this behalf expended, and the said defendants in money. But this execution may be discharged by the payment of forty eight dollars and eighty eight cents with interest thereon from the 1st day of May 1842 till paid of the costs.
