

And John Hart who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the oaths joined upon their oath returned a verdict in the following words to wit "We of the jury find the defendant Derago guilty & assess the fine to one cent. We also find the defendant Sumner not guilty" Therefore it is considered by the Court that the Commonwealth recover against the defendant Derago the same fine and the fine assessed as aforesaid and the costs of this prosecution. And the said Defendant may be taken so And as to the Defendant Sumner it is considered by the Court that he go discharged without day

The Commonwealth

against

Thomas O'Brien

} Upon Information
Held

On the motion of the defendant by his Attorney this cause is continued at his costs till the next quarterly Term And Thomas Sommers Anthony & William J. Shaw who were summoned to appear here this day as witnesses for the defendant were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is ordered that they be summoned to the first day of the next quarterly Term of this Court to show cause if any they can why they should not be fined for their said contempt.

The Commonwealth

against

Oran B. Claude

} Upon an
Held Infor. &c

The Attorney for the Commonwealth with the assent of the Court hath he will not further prosecute against the defendant upon the presentment aforesaid. Therefore it is ordered that the same be dismissed.

The Commonwealth

against

William Capper & Patrick A. Vaughan

} Upon an
Held Infor. &c

Simon P. Westbrook & Nest Drew who were summoned to appear here this day as witnesses for the Commonwealth were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is ordered that they be summoned to the first day of the next quarterly Term of this Court to show cause if any they can why they should not be fined for their said contempt. And thereupon came a jury to wit Albert Cress Josiah Joyner James B. Bryant James J. Sweeney for Briggs Horace Drury John C. Dwyer Bennett J. Griffin Andrew Johnson Nick A. Branch Thomas C. Jones & Matthew Howell who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the oaths joined upon their oath returned a verdict in the following words to wit. "We of jury find the defendants guilty and assess their fines to one cent each" Therefore it is considered by the Court that the Commonwealth recover against the said defendants the sum of one cent each the fines assessed as aforesaid and the costs of this prosecution. And the said defendants may be taken so