

Deborah Dwyer

against

John Sergeant and James S. Vernon

109

1858

3. p. p.

forthcoming of property on the day of sale.
This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and it appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this action they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for Eighty three dollars and ninety two cents the penalty of the said writ and his costs by him about his action in this behalf expended. And the said defendants in May 1858. But this execution may be discharged by the payment of forty one dollars and ninety six cents with legal interest thereon from the 1st day of January 1854 till paid and the costs.

Eff. } A motion upon a
After } writ taken for the

Samuel D. Douglas

against

Esther A. Williams and Edmund Wells

1858

3. p. p.

forthcoming of property on the day of sale.
This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and it appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this action they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for One hundred dollars and forty four cents the penalty of the said writ and his costs by him about his action in this behalf expended. And the said defendants in May 1858. But this execution may be discharged by the payment of fifty dollars and twenty six cents with legal interest thereon from the 1st day of January 1853 till paid and the costs.

Eff. } A motion upon a
After } writ taken for the

Amasa Dwyer

against

John Vick and Williams Vick

1858

3. p. p.

forthcoming of property on the day of sale.
This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and it appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this action they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for thirty eight dollars the penalty of the said writ and his costs by him about his action in this behalf expended. And the said defendants in May 1858. But this execution may be discharged by the payment of twenty dollars with legal interest thereon from the 1st day of January 1853 till paid and the costs.

Eff. } A motion upon a
After } writ taken for the

Deborah Taylor who does for the benefit of Deborah A. Taylor

against

Esther A. Williams and Charles A. Taylor

1858

3. p. p.

forthcoming of property on the day of sale.
This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and it appearing to the Court that the defendants have had legal notice of this action they were solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for Ninety four dollars and six cents the penalty of the said writ and his costs by him about his action in this behalf expended. And the said defendants in May 1858. But this execution may be discharged by the payment of forty three dollars and three cents with legal interest thereon from the 20th day of December 1853 till paid and the costs.

Eff. } A motion upon a
After } writ taken for the