D. J. W. Blanchard
Supt. } A suit on a bill of exchange

This day this cause was dictated by law of Court and consent of parties and time set to trial on the bill and cause and was argued by Counsel. It is therefore ordered by the Court that aforesaid order and decree that Sampson Bellows Jacob Barrett and Jacob Waller be appointed Commissioners, any two of whom may act, that they attend by a competent attorney as shall be chosen Underwood who was late the owner of Beckwith's Bridge one third of the lands of his late husband (against being tried to value) in full of her due right in said lands - And that they report their proceedings to this Court in order to a final decree.

Elijahelle Waller infant daughter of Benjamin C. Waller with the application of the law made choice of the said Benjamin Waller for her guardian and therefore the said Benjamin C. Waller and Sampson Bellows, Jacob Barrett and Jacob Waller are directed to act and acknowledge at least in the sum of four thousand dollars conditioned according to law.

In the opinion of Thomas J. Moore Esq. counselor and counsellor of Thomas Proctor Esq.<sup>2</sup> and for reasons appearing to the Court, that Mr. Moore be appointed trustee in the sum of Thomas Proctor in a sum due of Court dictated on the 26th day of July 1828 by James Drinker to the said Thomas J. Proctor for the benefit of Thomas Proctor and recorded in the Clerk's Office of the Court on the 18th day of September 1828 with the same power as is vested in the said Thomas J. Proctor by the sum of Court aforesaid.

The last Bill and Settlement of Russell Williams Esq.<sup>2</sup> are found by the acts of John Davis and Nicholas M. Debelle the subscribing witness thereunto and ordain to be record. Thomas J. Proctor and Robert Proctor the executors therein named refusing to take upon themselves the burden of the execution of said Bill in the action of William J. Debelle who made and together with Edward Hall and Nicholas M. Debelle his executors acknowledged a sum in the sum of two thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs certiorari is granted here for staying letters of administration on the estate of the said Russell Williams with his bond with security in his favor.

Ordered that Thomas J. Proctor, John Davis, Elijahelle Adams and Robert Proctor or any three of them being first duly sworn before a Justice of the Peace for that purpose do appear all the real and personal estate of Russell Williams Esq.<sup>2</sup> to these present or absent and return the aforesaid under their hands to Court.
