This day came as with the plaintiff by his attorney as the defendant as the first part and then for the defendant's attorney by the plaintiff's attorney. Therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff sues against the defendant the owner of the land and the plaintiff's attorney. The plaintiff also deals with legal and other claims from the 15th day of November 1823. That part of the suit was not in the work and was not to be done by the defendant's attorney. The plaintiff's attorney is the owner of the goods and chattels of the defendant in the hands of the defendant to be returned to him. And the said defendant on May 28th 1824. This judgment is to be executed to the defendant and Attorney for dollars paid May 22nd 1824.

This day this cause was debated by leave of Court, and consent of Justice and Council believed on the bill and answer such was argued by Kinsale. His Excellency allowed the bill with order, a judge, and leave that Nathaniel Warner, Thomas K. Moore, and Dr. John Strong be appointed Commissioners of this Court, any two of whom may act, that they upon our thinking of the signs, Anne (express being sent to us) where George & C. Bradburn had proposed Mansfield Cole, as one of two clerks during life, that they be attended by a competent number of us three, upon our saying, able to her on third part of the bonded estate, she will make the required thing she had to submit, and upon the remaining two thirds of the bond and request to the husband to be held in answer during their minority.
