forthcoming on the day of sale of property taken under execution. This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and it appearing by the oath of a witness that the defendants have had legal notice of this action, they were solemnly called but came not. Whereupon the execution and bond aforesaid being produced and inspected it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for seven dollars and eighty four cents the penalty of the said bond and his costs by him in this behalf expended. And the said defendants in May 8th. But this judgment is to be discharged by the payment of three dollars and ninety four cents with legal interest thereon from the 12th day of June 1846 till payment and the costs.
