William Rando of the County of Southampton in State charged with having feloniously stolen stolen & carried away from an William Rando a patient sister ^{born} child of the value of twenty five dollars of the County of said State and at the bar on a writ of Habeas Corpus of the Court of the County of said State commenced for the examination of the said William Rando having paid to said Court and the Sheriff thereof the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars of the County of said State fully paid, the Court after fully considering the testimony given at the circumstances of the case the one of opinion that the prisoner ought to be tried for the said offense at the next Term of the Court of Superior Court of said County for the County. And therefore the prisoner is remanded to jail.

On the motion of Edward Bell administrator with the well assessed of James Bell and Orison that James R. Edwards who is hereby appointed Special Commissioner for the purpose, state with respect to account of the said James Bell administration or Orison Bell Estate of records report thereof to Court with any and all specially stated demand pertinent by having which he might require to be state.

Willetts nearly of the County of Southampton who stands charged with having feloniously stolen taken & carried away from one William Mabeau of the said County a Baggage box containing money & valuable papers on or about the 15th of June last past, was this day set to the bar in custody of the gaoler of the County. He had summoned for his examination having failed to attend. And therefore sundry subpoenas being sworn & returned by the proper legal officers of the County, the Court after hearing the testimony and from all the circumstances of the case was of opinion that the prisoner ought to be tried for the said offence at the next Term of the Circuit before the Lord of Sessions being in this County and therefore the prisoner is committed to jail.
