This day came as well the attorney prosecuting for the Commonwealth as the defendant by his attorney and thereupon came a jury to wit: David Ellinger, James H. Black, Henry Simmons, William C. Henson, William H. Hightower, J. E. Williams, Francis Beale, John Powell, John Henry, J. H. Smith, Francis Boynton and A. H. Brown who being duly sworn and directed the jurists to search upon the facts presented upon their oath returned a verdict in the following words to wit: "We the jury find the defendant guilty and assess the sum of one hundred dollars to the Commonwealth." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the Commonwealth against the defendant the sum of one hundred dollars assessed against and the costs of this prosecution. And the said defendant may be taken up.
