

the road leading from the residence of Benjamin Butler Sr to the main road which runs from Smithfield to Jerusalem at some convenient point. The Commissioners have before them printed to view the way proposed for said road to view this day made their report, in these words: "To the Honorable County Court of Southampton, Gentlemen. We the undersigned in obedience to your order which is hereto annexed proceeded to examine the route of the road as proposed in said order being guided by a party of your petitioners for the said road and report as follows. We have marked out the directions as described by all the parties through whose land it will run, which direction it may be necessary to vary from a little in order to straighten. We suppose the length 3 miles and estimated the cost between 100 & 150. We are authorized to say the cost should not exceed 150. As to the expense or advantage of the road. We will say there are several of your petitioners who have a way led out to a public road, which the said road will greatly benefit. And it may also facilitate the travel of a few other individuals. I am Ktles. Wm D South James Vick. Witness our hands after considering the said report and the evidence adduced it is ordered that the said petition be dismissed."

On the motion of Augustus Pope Ordered that Thomas B. Norvell and Jacob Davis who are hereby appointed Special Commissioners for the purpose to settle, settle and adjust the said Pope's administration on James Norvell's estate and make report thereof to the Court.

Benjamin B. Phillips having obtained an attachment against the goods and chattels of George Whitfield who hath removed out of the Commonwealth, specially for the sum of thirteen dollars and sixty pence due by account and the costable having made return that he could find no visible estate of the said George Whitfield whereof to attach and had summoned Thomas B. Norvell as garnishee. This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and the defendant not appearing, and Thomas B. Norvell administrator of James Pope, do the garnishee in this case being sworn and examined. It is considered by the Court that the said Phillips never against the said George Whitfield the sum of thirteen dollars and sixty cents the amount of his account proved to be just and has by him in this behalf expended out of any moneys in his hands belonging to the said Whitfield pay to the plaintiff the amount of his judgment. Upon consideration that the said Phillips accords to the said Norvell administrator as aforesaid had with security considered to refund the said
