Charles William Northridge, Plaintiff & Northridge & Northridge and C. W. Northridge, Plaintiff, Charles William Northridge, the last five of whom are infants by William Northridge, their Guardian ad litem.
This day the Court came on to be heard on the papers formerly read and the Report of the Commissioner made pursuant to the order of October Term 1845 to which there is no exception and was argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court approving said Report, doth adjudge order and decree that the same be held firm and stable and binding between the parties forever, liberty being reserved to the infant defendants to show cause if any they can against the same within six months after they respectively arrive to the age of twenty one years. And that each be held equally between the parties.
