Margaret Seaward Bondman infants &c by L.R.C. towards their guardian ad litem.

The Commencement on this cause this day made a report which is in these words to-wit: Agreeably to the annexed decree we Jas. A. Wimbush and Manning T. Smith have been provided to settle Mrs. Nancy Gardner's debt of James A. Gardner dec'd on the tract in value of the above named tract of land. We have ascertained by survey that it contains two hundred and fourteen acres instead of only 150 acres. We have therefore allotted Mrs. Nancy Gardner's Early her and a half acre as her dower commencing at the large red oak on the road near the shop occupied by Isaac Jones in a line between this tract and Simon Chaffer thence N 20 E 120 p. along a new line of marked trees except at a plantation to the large ditch on the back part of the plantation thence S 77 1/2 E 69 p. along a new line of marked trees to a post set on the large ditch in the line of Meredith's plantation thence up the large ditch along a new line of marked trees the courses thence 70 p. to a black gum at the corner of the plantation thence
