

Benjamin C. Waller having made complaint to a Justice of the Peace of this County that Denny Biddle's debt was running out of this County privately, or absconds or conceals himself so that the ordinary process of law could not be served upon him, and the said Justice having granted an attachment against the estate of the said Denny Biddle returnable to this Court which has been levied upon sundry goods and chattels - the said Benjamin C. Waller this day appeared by his attorney and the said Denny Biddle being solemnly called came not. Whereupon came James H. Schell corner who claimed the property levied upon. And the said Benjamin C. Waller and the said Schell corner appeared by their attorneys being fully heard. It is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant eleven dollars and fifty nine cents with interest from the 11 day of December 1848 and his costs by him in this behalf expended. And it is ordered that the Officer who levied the said attachment after selling and disposing of the goods and chattels attached as aforesaid and satisfying the prior judgments this day rendered on attachments thereto in favor of D. C. H. P. Pope and the other in favor of O. A. Barkham, that he apply the balance to the satisfaction of this judgment and the balance if any apply to subsequent judgments rendered upon attachments this day first, one in favor of James H. Person, secondly, one in favor of Peter Edwards and thirdly, one in favor of Denny Biddle. and if any surplus should then remain that he return it to the defendant. And the said Officer is required to return to the Clerk's Office within thirty days after such sale is made and completed an account of the sales specifying therein the several articles sold, the persons to whom sold and the prices thereof.

Moreover ordered. So the judgment given for the plaintiff on said return the said James H. Schell corner as aforesaid accepted and tendered his bill of exceptions which bill was reviewed, signed & sealed by the Court and ordered to be made a part of the record upon said return.
