

To Thomas Mann. Simon and David and to remain as above -
 To Robert Francis, Matthew, Andrew and Edward Wilson, Henry Spier, William D. L.
 Robson and Ephraim. Respectfully submitted. - James B. Peters, James Mann.
 Cape Little. December 25. 1847.

Walter Myrick, Jacob Jones trustee & others against

Mary Branch

This day this cause came on again to be heard on the papers formerly read and argued by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth order, adjudge and direct by way of amendment to the former decree, that in the sale of land described to be made the family burying ground as to be accepted and a right of way should be taken. And it is further ordered that the title to said lands as to be withheld by the trustee till the purchase money is all paid.

For reasons appearing to the Court. Ordered that the Indentures by which Sam Spier was bound to Sam B. Boyard be, and they are hereby transferred to James B. Boyard according to Law.

On the motion of James B. Verghenot. Ordered that William D. L. be appointed Special Commissioner for the purpose to take a title and a plot on a tract of the Verghenot's guardianship of George A. Hollman and make report thereof to the Court.

The Commissioners appointed to let to the lowest bidder the repairs or rebuilding of Morris bridge over the throw creek this day made their report.

Robert Rowland is appointed surveyor of the road leading from Thomas's bridge past the road near Robert Reddys garden in the town of Abbeville & Southwark, and so on that the usual bounds be made thereon.

Morris Duke Branch

against

Callithers Branch and Lucy his wife, Simon Branch & Emma his wife, Jacob Branch & Elizabeth his wife, John Branch & Dorothy his wife, Maria, Martha, Polly, George Branch & Samuel Kille.

This day this cause came on to be heard on the bill and answer by Counsel on the bill by Counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth order, adjudge and direct that the Branch who is hereby appointed a Special Commissioner of the Court after advertising a parcel of land at two or more public places in the vicinity of the said land proceed to sell it to the highest bidder, and that he receive so much in cash as will pay the expenses of the same and for the balance of the proceeds he take some equal bonds with good security payable on demand and that he assign one to Morris Duke Branch, one to Callithers Branch, one to Lucy, one to Simon Branch as right of his wife Emma, one to Jacob Branch as right of his wife Elizabeth, one to Samuel Kille assignee of John Branch & Dorothy his wife, one to Maria, A. Branch, one to Martha Branch and one to Polly Branch, and one to Henry Branch and report to this Court in order to a final decree.