Def } In Chancery

This day this cause came on again to be heard on the papers formerly read and on the report of the Commissioners made at the last term to which no exception has been filed and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge order and decree that the same be held firm and stable and binding between the parties, and that the costs be equally borne between the parties, liberty being reserved to the report defendant only to show cause, if any they can, against this decree within six months after they respectively arrive to twenty years of age.
