

completion. John Williams now appearing before the Court and petitioning the same to be raised and established as a public road. It is ordered that the petition be granted and the road to run as it was then opened (commencing) at the road leading over Morris bridge passing by Deles Milling house crossing the road leading over Jones' bridge which is the direct road to Polishing near the place John W made labouring Trenchable of his own, Edmund C Bailey and Jack Harris keep the road and on good repair.

Ordered that John Williams, Jack Powell, Edmund C Bailey and Robert Rowland or any three of them, do let to the Court undertake the repairs or rebuilding of the bridge across the popular swamp, near the same when completed and make report to the Court.

On the motion of William J. Sebolt carrier of Nicholas M. Sebolt against Henry A. White guardian of the persons of William Wade for criminal insanity. For reasons appearing to the Court that motion is continued till the next Court.

The Last Will and Testament of William B. Goodwyn deceased was proved by the oath of George W. Dorman and James Hall the subscribing witnesses (which were read and reduced to be recorded). And Edmund J. Reddy and George B. Cary two of the executors thereof seemed refusing to take upon themselves the burden of the execution thereof. On the motion of William J. Goodwyn the other executor thereof named who made oath and together with James J. Reddy, Robert Reddy and Thomas Reddy his brothers entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of fifty thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs.

The Commissioners appeared to let to the Court undertake the repairs of Smith bridge that day made their report.

16th March

against
Joseph B. Cooper

Plff

} In Case
Def

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and thereupon came a jury to and John Whitehead, J. M. Bailey, William Harris, Nathan Jones, John B. Jenkins, George W. Spring, Patrick Cox, John C. Jones, Nathaniel Jones, A. J. Jones, James Williams, and William Edwards who being sworn deliberately inquired of the damages on this suit upon their oath returned a verdict in the following words to-wit: "Be the jury of the plaintiffs damages at thirty three dollars and twenty cents with interest from May 1st 1826." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant the damages assessed as aforesaid with interest thereon from the 1st day of May 1826 till paid and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended and the said Defendant in Attorney &c

On the motion of William B. Howell. Ordered that John J. Mason be, and he is hereby appointed, an Special Commissioner for the purpose, and when he is duly directed to take, take and report on account of said Howell's administration on the estate of Arthur Lord dec'd and make report thereof to the Court.