

Jimmy Stuck who stands Indicted of house breaking was this day appeared in Court in discharge of his recognizance and was set to the bar in custody of the Sheriff of this County, and being thereof arraigned pleaded not guilty to the Indictment. And a panel of twenty four free holders summoned by the Sheriff were examined by the Court, found free from all legal exceptions and qualified to serve as Jurors according to law, therefore the accused was drawn from the panel eight of said Jurors & from the remaining sixteen the following Jurors were selected by lot, to whom there was no objection, to wit; Jas St. Crepin, John St.
 Drake, Asst. St. Drake, R. J. Sargent, Justice Charles, Jas. Kello, J. St. B. Barkman, Chris Morris, Edwin Bradshaw, F. St. Vaughan, I. W. Nicholson and Seymour Vaughan who were sworn the truth to speak of and upon the premises and after hearing the evidence and arguments of Counsel, returned to their room to consult in a verdict, and after some time returned into Court having found the following verdict, to wit; "We the Jury find the prisoner not Guilty." Wherefore proclamation being made as the Warrant is, and nothing further appearing or being alleged against the said Jimmy Stuck, It is considered by the Court that he be acquitted and discharged of the Offense aforesaid.

Elijah Skinner who stands Indicted of house breaking this day appeared in Court in discharge of his recognizance & was set to the bar in custody of the Sheriff of this County, and being thereof arraigned pleaded not guilty to the Indictment. And a panel of twenty four free holders summoned by the Sheriff were examined by the Court found free from all legal exceptions and qualified to serve as Jurors according to law, therefore the accused was drawn from the panel eight of said Jurors and from the remaining sixteen the following Jurors were selected by lot to whom there was no objection, to wit; Jas St. Crepin, John St. Drake, Asst. St. Drake, R. J. Sargent, Justice Charles, Jas. Kello, J. St. B. Barkman, Chris Morris, Edwin Bradshaw, F. St.
 Vaughan, I. W. Nicholson, and Seymour Vaughan, who were sworn the truth to speak of and upon the premises, and hearing the evidence, and arguments of Counsel, returned to their room to consult in a verdict, and after some time returned into Court having found the following verdict to wit; "We the Jury find the prisoner not Guilty." Wherefore proclamation being made as the Warrant is and nothing further appearing or being alleged against the said Elijah Skinner, It is considered by the Court that he be acquitted and discharged of the Offense aforesaid.

Jeremiah Copeland, who stands Indicted of house breaking this day appeared in Court in discharge of his recognizance and was set to the bar in custody of the Sheriff of this County, and being thereof