

erroneous entry, was not caused by reason of the failure or refusal of the applicant to furnish a list of his property real and personal to the Commissioner on Oath as the law requires. It is therefore ordered that the aforesaid be corrected and that the applicant be exonerated from the payment of $24.15 so erroneously charged, if not already paid, and if paid that it be refunded to him.

This day came W. C. Wagoner who alleges that he is aggrieved by entries in the Land Book by Orris Morris Commissioner of the Revenue for said County for the year 1870, whereby he is charged with $8.02 tax on a certain tract of Land of 338 acres, designated in the Land Book as "Round Hill", and where he is charged with tax on 35 acres of Land part of tract of 338 1/2 acres designated as "Black Water". Whereupon the said W. C. Wagoner moved the Court to exonerate him from the payment of $4.95 part of the tax so erroneously charged against him for the said year, which motion was defended by J. D. Kinney, atty for the Commonwealth for said County, and the said Orris Morris the Commissioner. The aforesaid was examined as a witness touching the application, and it appearing that the application for redress against erroneous entries was made on this day for the first time - and it appearing that the tract of 338 acres is erroneously charged to W. C. Wagoner (he owning 20 Bush Land) and that the tract of 338 1/2 acres should be charged at $303 1/2 acres, this showing the true number of acres in this tract to be 35 less than charged in the Book, thus showing that the said W. C. Wagoner is entitled to an abatement on this tax tract $5.19, and it further appearing that the tract of 458 acres designated in Black Water should be changed to 470. Showing that he is charged with 12 acres less than the true number, and that he is charged with 14 1/2 less than the proper tax. All of which the Court certifies as fully proved upon the application aforesaid. In consideration whereof and from such facts so proved the Court is satisfied that W. C. Wagoner is erroneously charged in the said Book with taxes amounting to $4.95 and that the erroneous entries were not caused by reason of the failure or refusal of the said applicant to furnish a list of his property real and personal to the Commissioner on Oath as the law requires. It is therefore ordered that the aforesaid be corrected and the applicant be exonerated from the payment of $4.95 so erroneously charged if not already paid, and if paid that it be refunded to him. Ordered that the Court be adjourned till the first day of the next Term.

J. W. Wagoner Judge