

Judgments reported by Commissioner Tyler, in his Report of November 4th 1870, as being liens in the Lands of Richard L. Bryant, have been paid, together with any other matters specially stated, deemed pertinent by himself, or which may be required to be so stated by any of the parties interested.

Mary J. Carr

Sarah J. Carr and John R. Carr

Jeff. J.

Sub. Channing

The Defendant Sarah J. Carr, by leave of the Court, this day filed her answer to the Plaintiff's bill, and the Plaintiff replied generally thereto.

Robert Taylor, who stands Indicted of Housebreaking, was set to the bar in Custody of the Sheriff of the said County, and being arraigned pleaded not guilty to the Indictment. And a panel of twenty-four persons summoned by the Sheriff were examined by the Court, found free from all legal exceptions and qualified to serve as jurors according to law. Whereupon the accused waived from the panel eight of said jurors, and from the remaining sixteen, the following twelve jurors were selected by lot, to whom there was no objection, to wit: John T. Wells, Stephen Vaughan, Geo. H. Stephenson, James Hurdley, Richard Hurdley, Washington Beale, John B. Taughton, William Davis, John R. Carr, J. L. Bishop, Amos S. Pope and William St. Vaughan, who were sworn the truth of and upon the promises to speak, and after hearing the evidence upon their Oath do say, "That the jury find the prisoner guilty and sentence him to seven years imprisonment in the Penitentiary," and the prisoner is remanded to jail.

Taylor Merrill, who stands Indicted of Stealing of Bank Notes of a high value above ten dollars, this day appeared in discharge of his recognizance entered into at the April Term of this Court, and was set to the bar in Custody of the Sheriff of the County and being arraigned pleaded not guilty to the Indictment, and thereupon came a jury to wit: Jas. H. Holmes, Jas. R. Drake, Hesketh Cobb, W. D. Moore, S. F. Little, W. H. Ford, William Camp, W. E. Howell, Geo. R. Branch, W. D. Ford, John Francis and Job Holland, who being sworn, took and swore the truth to. Speak upon the issue joined, upon their Oath do say, "That the jury find the prisoner guilty." Whereupon it is considered by the Court that the prisoner be confined in the Jail of this County for twenty-four hours, and thereupon until he pay the cost of this prosecution, and that he also receive twenty lashes on his bare back well laid on, which the Sheriff of this County will cause to be inflicted previous to his discharge, and the prisoner is remanded to jail.