

Thomas J. Carr

Sept. 3

James W. Duke

Barrett & Steggins

James W. Duke

By Consent of parties, It is ordered that there be a demurrer, and that the Defendant pay to the Plaintiff their costs.

Elizabeth et al. against

Samuel J. Jones and Mary L. and Martha J. Jones
Infants by S. R. Edwards their Guardian ad litem Deft.

On the Report of Commissioner to R. Griffin of Sale of Land under decree of this Court in the Cause of Jones vs. Jones it is hereby ordered that the return be made mentioned in above report and collect the same within due and make report to this Court.

The Commonwealth

Sept. 3 Upon and Judgment

Jack Morris

Oct 15 12
St. 270
Lmo 5. 111
12. 1 4

F. J. J.

This day came as with the Attorney for the Commonwealth as the Deft in his own proper person and thereupon came to wit. J. R. Drake, Wickliff both, J. G. Little, W. E. Morris, Geo. St. Branch, W. J. P. Jones, Francis, Geo. W. Stephenson, David Turner, R. F. Perkins, B. A. Jones and Charles Bradshaw, who being called tried and heard the Court do speak upon the issue joined, Upon which Court do say, "We the jury find the Prisoner guilty, and give the fine of fifty dollars; therefore it is considered by the Court that the Commonwealth recover against the Defendant the fine aforesaid and the costs of this proceeding."

The Commonwealth

Sept. 3

Stuart Ford

The Same

Ben. R. Vanghosen

The Same

Ely. H. H.

The Attorney for the Commonwealth against the agent of the same