Ordered that the County Treasurer out of any of the County levy in his hands not otherwise appropriated pay Melrose C Cothrell thirteen dollars the amount of his account for his services as Registrar

This day ^{came} Nathaniel I Ridley who alleges that he is aggrieved by an entry in the personal property book by James E Westbrook assessor in the Township of Druryville in this County for the year 1841, whereby he is charged with taxes for the year 1841 on personal property of the aggregate value of $7939. And thereupon the said Nathaniel I Ridley moved the Court to exonerate him from the payment of $4.70 part of the taxes so erroneously charged against him for said year which motion was defended by Joseph B Parice the attorney for the Commonwealth for said County. and the said James E Westbrook the assessor who made the assessment and Joseph D Barham the assessor in the Township of Boykins were examined as witnesses touching the application. And it appearing that the application for redress against the erroneous entry was made this day for the first time. And it appearing that the said Nathaniel I Ridley is correctly charged with personal property in the assessor of Boykins Twp of the aggregate amount of $7937. and that that identical property is also charged against him in the assessor book in Druryville Township so that he is charged twice with taxes on said sum of $7937. All of which the Court certifies as facts proved upon the application aforesaid. On consideration whereof and from such facts so proved, the Court is satisfied that the said Nathaniel I Ridley is erroneously charged on the assessor book in the Township of Druryville with taxes amounting to $4.70 Whereupon it is ordered that the said Nathaniel I Ridley be exonerated from the payment of $4.70 taxes so
