

ology

On the motion of Benjamin F. Cox It is ordered that D. L. Dole late Sheriff & administrator of Margaret Worrell do out of the assets of his testator in his hands pay to the said Cox the sum of One hundred and twenty dollars for one years bond of J. W. Worrell
 & George T. Worrell

Sh
W
L
Ded
Fi f

recorded and is as follows:
"To the County Court of Southampton County, Virginia Pursuant to a decree of the County Court of said County rendered at the January Term 1872, the undersigned Commissioners appointed to allot to Esther E Gardner widow of Geo. H Gardner see her dower in the real estate of said Geo. H Gardner herewith report that on the 20 day of January 1872, they proceeded to discharge the duties conferred by said decree and allotted the said Esther E Gardner the following real estate. The line commencing at the West Corner of the grave yard and runs Strait from said grave yard, the West side of the lane to the outer fence and down said fence east to a marked Pine and Strait from said Pine to an Oak on the line between Elisha Lewis and said estate, and down said line East to John A Council's line and down said Council's line to the Mill Swamp and up the mill Swamp opposite the Swamp fence running by the Blacksmiths Shop and up said fence to the grave yard, estimated at One hundred & twenty acres G. H. Vick, M. M. Clayton, Delathiel Lewis, Commrs."

Isaac Ridley who stands indicted for feloniously and maliciously burning a Stable appraised in discharge of his recognizance, and being arraigned pleaded not guilty to the Indictment and a panel of sixteen persons summoned by the Sheriff were examined by the Court, found free from all legal exception and qualified to serve as jurors according to law, Thereupon the accused peremptorily challenged four of the jurors and the remaining twelve jurors to wit Silsby Davis, Dr. B. Davis, J. S. Gillette, Jeph S. Cobb, D. J. Watkins, Mr. Lamb, Henry K. Williams, John Blythe, J. P. Glad, Joyner, Rich. J. Williams, & Wm. Westor were sworn the truth of and upon the premises pronounced.

And having heard the evidence upon their oaths to say "We the jury find the alleged against him It is considered by the Court that the said Isaac Ridley be acquitted."

And thereupon proclamation being made as the manner is and nothing further.

From Custody -