This day came Thomas A Bishop who alleges that he is aggrieved by an return made by G. D. Butler Assessor in the Township of Stevens Esq in this County in which he the said Bishop is charged with fifty five dollars as a tax on a license to retail ardent spirits & at Rochelle's old tavern in the Township of said and thereupon the said Thomas A Bishop moved the Court to vacate him for the payment of all of the taxes & erroneously assessed against him: which motion was defended by J. B. Pined the Attorney for the Commonwealth for said County and the said G. D. Butler the Assessor who made the assessment was examined as a witness touching the application. And it appearing that the said Bishop was assessed by the said Butler the Assessor in the following manner: That the said Bishop was not decided whether he would take out a license to retail ardent spirits or not but that he would inform the said Assessor within two or three days whether he would apply therefor or not that within the said two or three days thereafter the said Bishop did inform the said Assessor that he had decided not to apply for the same. Upon which the said Assessor replied that he had already applied him, the said Bishop, & had made his return to the Auditor. And it was further proved in like manner that the said Bishop never applied to or obtained from the Court the certificate required by law to retail ardent spirits and never did retail ardent spirits and it appears to the Court that application for redress against the erroneous assessment was made on the first time. All which the Court certifies as facts proved upon the application aforesaid. On consideration whereof and from such facts & proved the Court is satisfied that the said Thomas A Bishop is erroneously assessed with taxes amounting to fifty five dollars whereupon it is ordered that the said Thomas A Bishop be vacated from
