

him for said years: which motion was defended by J. B. Prince Esq Attorney for the Commonwealth for said County, and the said James E Westbrooke the appor who made the apporment, was examined as a witness touching the application ^{And it} appearing that application for redress against the erroneous apporment ^{was made} this day for the first time and it appearing that the 232 acres ^{inly} were transferred to Angelina & James but not deducted from the 512 1/2 acres ^{so that both have paid the taxes on the 232 acres for both years 1871 & 1872} charged to Benjamin A James as it should have been. All of which the Court certifies as facts proved upon the application aforesaid. On consideration whereof, and from such facts so proved the Court is satisfied that the said Benjamin A James is erroneously charged on said books with taxes amounting to $9.05 whereupon it is ordered that the said Benjamin A James be exonerated from the payment of $9.05 taxes for the years 1871 & 1872 so erroneously charged, if not already paid, and if paid that it be refunded to him.

This day came K. W. Urquhart who alleges that he is aggrieved by entries in the books of Orris Moore Commissioner of the Revenue for said County in the year 1870, ^{and} in the land book of James G Jones appor in Berlin & Ivor Townships in this County for the year 1871. That for the year 1870 he is charged with 563 acres of land in one tract on Black Water at $9.50 per acre, that 196 acres of that tract was charged to K. W. Urquhart ^{and are included in the tract of} without being deducted from K. W. Urquhart so that both K. W. Urquhart paid taxes on 196 acres in 1870. That in the year 1871 also he is charged $11.29 taxes on a tract of 67 acres at $3.26 per acre on Black Water. That on the Book for 1871 he is charged $16.52 taxes on a tract containing 172. Known as the 'home tract' and $12.45 taxes on a tract of 637 acres on Black Water at $3.91 per acre. And thereupon the said K. W. Urquhart moved the Court to exonerate him from the payment of $36.93 part of the taxes so erroneously charged against him for said years, which motion was defended by J. B. Prince the Attorney for the Commonwealth for said County, and Orris Moore & James G Jones the Commissioner and appor who made the apporments, were examined as witnesses touching the application. And it appearing ^{that 67 acres at $9.50 per acre is the true amount of taxes with which he should have been appor} that 67 acres at $9.50 per acre is the true amount of taxes with which he should have been appor and $26.74 on 563 acres at $9.50 per acre in the year 1870 that of the tract of 563 acres 196 acres was transferred to K. W. Urquhart and omitted to be deducted from K. W. Urquhart. That $11.29 the taxes on 67 acres at $3.26 was entirely erroneous the said K. W. Urquhart owned no such land. That the $16.52 on 172 at $7. per acres should be $2.35 on 174 acres at $7 per acres. That $12.45 the taxes on 637 acres at $3.91 should be $11.68 on 597 acres at $3.91 per acre. All of which the Court certifies as facts proved upon the application aforesaid. On consideration whereof and from such facts so proved the Court is satisfied that the said K. W. Urquhart is erroneously charged with taxes amounting to thirty six ^{for the years 1870 & 1871} Dollars. Whereupon it is ordered that the said K. W. Urquhart be exonerated from the payment of $36.93 only taxes so erroneously charged, if not already paid, and if paid that it be refunded to him.

It appearing to the Court that K. W. Urquhart has been ^{erroneously} assessed with County taxes to the amount of $28.57 on his lands for the years 1870 & 1871. It is ordered that he be released from the payment thereof or if paid that it be refunded to him.
