The Commissioners appointed at the Term of this Court to act in conjunction with Commissioners also appointed by the County Court of Greenville County, to let to the lowest Underbidder the repairs of the Halip Bridge on Meherrin River, ~~reporting~~ this day made the following report to wit: "To the Hon. J. W. Upshur Judge of the County Court of Southampton, The Undersigned Commissioners, also appointed by the County Court of this County to act in conjunction with Commissioners from Greenville County to let to the lowest Underbidder the repairs of the Halip Bridge on Meherrin River respectfully submit the following report That they met the Commissioners from Greenville at the Bridge on January 1874, and let the work to Ferguson, for the sum of three hundred and sixty five dollars. We think the amount low enough and recommend that the Contract be confirmed. We will send Plans and Specifications to the Clerk of this Court, and when they are received, we ask your Honor to confirm the Contract."

Respectfully Submitted
