This day came the plaintiff by his attorney, and the Defendants being again solemnly called but came not, whereupon Co. C. Vaughan the Garnisher appeared and being sworn, upon his oath declares that he is indebted to the Defendants and that he has not now and had not at the time of serving the said attachment any other effects of the said William Peterson in his hands; and it being proved that the said Wm Peterson is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of one hundred and sixty two dollars and eighty four cents, with legal interest thereon from the 10th day of February 1874, till paid and costs. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the Defendants the said sum of one hundred and sixty two dollars and eighty four cents, with legal interest thereon from the 10th day of February 1874, till paid and costs. And Co. C. Vaughan the Garnisher out of any moneys in his hands belonging to the Defendants, after satisfying all prior liens, pay to the plaintiff and two other judgments this day rendered against the Defendants and in favor of William Kelly for R. J. Kelly & Co. and the other in favor of Sturson Council, their due proportions of any surplus in his hands.
