

appeared in discharge of his recognizance entered into before the Court of this County, and pleaded not guilty, and upon being joined with a jury to wit: R. M. Stephenson, W. B. Borchert, J. T. Fikens, G. G. G. Borchert, J. J. Spring, W. W. Borchert, W. B. Borchert, N. T. Fikens, G. W. Stephenson, W. J. Whitley, M. R. Edwards, and Daniel Borchert, who being elected, tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issue joined, and leaving heard the evidence returned to their room to consult of their verdict, and after some time returned into Court and declared that they could not agree on a verdict, whereupon R. M. Stephenson one of the jurors aforesaid was withdrawn, and the rest of the jury from rendering a verdict was discharged and the Cause is continued until the next Term of this Court for a new trial to be had therein. And thereupon the said James St. James acknowledged himself to be indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the sum of Fifty dollars to be paid of his goods and Chattels, lands and tenements to the use of the Commonwealth of Virginia, Yet upon this Condition that if the said James St. James shall make his personal appearance before this Court on the first day of the next Term thereof to answer the Commonwealth of and concerning the sum of which he stands charged and shall not depart thence without leave of the said Court, then this recognizance to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

On the motion of S. D. Hinkley, it is ordered that the Estate of J. P. Welling be committed to the hands of W. W. Briggs Sheriff of this County, to be administered as the law directs.

It appearing to the Court that Thomas Pittman who has been adjudged a lunatic, has been restored to sanity, it is ordered that he be discharged and his Estate be restored to him.

On the motion of James E. Harris one of the Securities of F. L. Harris as Guardian of J. F. and Edmund B. Maxwell heirs of J. F. Maxwell dec. It is ordered that the said F. L. Harris be summoned to the next Court to show Cause if any he can, why he should not be required to give a new bond and Security according to law as Guardian as aforesaid.

A Petition from the Auditor of Public Accounts directed to the Clerk of this Court, was this day laid, before the Court, complaining of the neglect of David St. Hindred Assessor of Boyd's Township in this County, in not complying with the law relating to his duties in this that he has made no return to the Auditors Office of his Books for the year 1874, nor any return of Licenses since August last. Whereupon it is ordered that the said David St. Hindred