

be summoned to appear before this Court on the first day of the next Term to show Cause if any he can, why he should not be removed from his Office.

This day Came Joseph Turner who alleges that he is aggrieved by an entry in the Land Book made by S. B. Drury, Assessor of the revenue for Orangeville Township in said County, in the year 1874, whereby he is charged with $4.03 taxes for the year 1874, on a tract of land containing 301 1/2 acres, described as lying on Flat Swamp, and thereupon the said Joseph Turner moved the Court to exonerate him from the payment of all of the taxes so erroneously charged against him the said Joseph Turner for said year, which motion was defended by Joseph B. Drury the Attorney for the Commisars for said County, and the said S. B. Drury the Assessor who made the aforesaid entry was examined as a witness touching the application. And it appearing that application for redress against the erroneous entry was made on this day for the first time, and that the applicant does not know the 301 1/2 acres of land. All which the Court certifies as facts proved upon the application aforesaid. In Consideration whereof and from such facts so proved the Court is satisfied that the said ^{Joseph Turner} is erroneously charged on said book with taxes amounting to six dollars and three cents. Whereupon it is ordered that the said Joseph Turner be exonerated from the payment of six dollars and three cents taxes so erroneously charged, if not already paid, and if paid, that it be refunded to him.

This day Came Joseph Turner who alleges that he is erroneously assessed with $7.84 Taxes for County purposes, sixty cents for poor school purposes and thirty cents for County for school purposes it is ordered that he be exempt from the payment of said taxes if not paid, and if paid that they be refunded to him.

This day Came James & Harris who allege that they are aggrieved by an entry in the Land Book made by S. B. Drury Assessor of the Revenue for Orangeville Township in said County, in the year 1874, whereby the Estate of Howell Harris is charged with $8.41 taxes for the year 1874, on a tract of land containing 300 acres, described as adjoining ^{to} St. Jones, and thereupon the said James & Harris moved the Court to exonerate them from the payment of $4.88 part of the taxes so erroneously charged against the said Estate for said year, which motion was defended by Joseph B. Drury the Attorney for the Commisars for said County, and the said S. B. Drury the Assessor who made the aforesaid entry was examined as a witness touching the application. And it appearing that application for redress against the erroneous entry was made on this day for the first time, and it appearing that the 300 acres is a part of the tract of 530 acres charged to the said Estate, and that said land has been deducted therefrom. All which the Court certifies as facts
