

being demanded of him if anything for himself, he had no knowledge say why the Court should not now proceed by summons judgment against him according to law, and nothing being offered or alleged in delay of judgment it is therefore considered by the Court that the said Thomas Beckett be imprisoned in the Penitentiary of this Commonwealth for the term of three years, the period of the jury in their verdict mentioned.
 And the Sheriff of this County is ordered as soon as possible after the adjournment of this Court to remove and safely convey the said Thomas Beckett from the jail of this County to the Penitentiary of this Commonwealth therein to be kept imprisoned and treated in the manner directed by law for the term aforesaid. And the Prisoner is remanded to jail.

George W. Beckett, who stands indicted of a felony was set to the bar in Custody of the jailer of this Court, and being arraigned pleaded not guilty to the Indictment, and a panel of twenty four jurors summoned by the Sheriff were examined by the Court, found free from all legal incapacity and qualified to serve as jurors according to law. Thereupon the accused was called from the panel eight of said jurors and from the remaining sixteen, the following twelve, were selected by lot, to whom there were no objections, to wit, Thos. J. Gray, Alexander J. J. J., J. W.
 Beaton, W. J. Ridley, B. J. Bryan, J. J. J., James H. J., Richard Gordon, E. W. Keifer, John H. Drake, Charles J. J., and L. L. Manry, who were sworn the truth of and upon the promises to speak, and hearing heard the evidence, upon their Oath de say, "The jury find the Prisoner not guilty" and thereupon proclamation being made as the manner is and nothing being offered or alleged against him, it is ordered that the said George W. Beckett be discharged from Custody.

The Commonwealth

Staff Upon an Indictment against

Thomas Beckett & Geo. W. Beckett

The attorney for the Commonwealth with the assent of the Court saith he will not further prosecute against the Defendant upon the Indictment aforesaid, therefore it is ordered that the case be dismissed.

The Court doth appoint Norfolk B. Ridley, a Justice of the Peace in the District of this County, to fill the vacancy existing in said Office by reason of the failure of the said Ridley to qualify himself within the time prescribed by law. And thereupon the said Ridley qualified by taking the Oath required by law.

The Court doth appoint Joseph B. B. a Justice of the Peace in the County District of this County, to fill the vacancy existing in said Office, by reason of Joseph L. Barlow's failure to qualify.
