This day came the parties by their attorneys, also being fully heard and the evidence adduced maturely considered, it is considered by the Court that the plaintiffs recover against the defendants Eighty Dollars and Seventy Cents, with legal interest thereon from August 13th 1875, till paid and their costs by them about their suits in this behalf respectively, including Four Dollars, expenses of the last term of this Court. Taylor as a witness in this cause at

John D. Portney and Doris A. Portney, who stand indicted of murder were this day led to the Bar in custody of the jailer of this Court and being charged with embezzlement, solemnly pleaded not guilty to the indictment, and not agreeing to be tried together by the same jury: on the motion of the Attorney for the Commonwealth, (also costs to proceed first against John D. Portney). Doris A. Portney also remanded to jail. And a panel of sixteen persons of the County four summoned by the Sheriff, were examined by the Court, found free from all legal exceptions and qualified to serve as jurors according to law. Whereupon the accused (John D. Portney) peremptorily challenged four of the Jurors and the remaining twelve to wit: Samuel C. Cobb, Robert J. Williams, Chas. E. Bradshaw, S. D. Denham, John Willard, Moses Joyner, J. St. Whitehead, Seth Mitchell, Walter Galt, William Mitchell, John Pittman and Ebenezer Kells, were clothed with trial and sworn the trial of each upon the promise to speak, and having heard the evidence upon their oaths to say: "We the Jury find the Prisoner guilty of murder in the second degree and as a punishment of Confession in the punishment to be Eighteen years." And thereupon, it being demanded of him, the said John D. Portney, if any thing for himself he had or knew to say, why the Court here should not now proceed to pronounce judgment against him according to law, and nothing being offered or alleged in delay of judgment, it is considered by the Court, that the said John D. Portney be imprisoned in the Penitentiary of this Commonwealth, for the term of eighteen years, the period by the jurors in their verdict ascertained, And it is ordered that the Sheriff of this County do, as soon as possible after the adjournment of this Court, remove and safely convey the said John D. Portney from the jail of this Court to the Penitentiary of this Commonwealth, there to be kept imprisoned and treated in the manner by law. And thereupon, the said John D. Portney is remanded to jail.

This Court certifies that H. H. Urquhart, Thos. J. Adams, Geo. H. Stephenson, Cordy Whitfield, A. H. Benfield, Thomas Vaughan and J. S. Woodson are entitled to one dollar each for their services during this term as Grand Jurors to be paid out of the County Levy.

This Court certifies that E. B. Pope, Sept. Deacons, Saml. Story, John Blythe, Samuel Beale, Frank Rector, Sal. Daugherty, J. F. Baworthy, John Williams, James Ball, Byrd Gray, George Connelie and Henry S. Vossler are entitled to one dollar each for their services during this term as Jurors in the trial of prosecutions, to be paid out of the public Treasury.
